The Ag Coop Safety Directors of Iowa is an organization of Safety professionals from across the state. Our mission is to promote a safe working environment within the local agricultural organizations, as well as the advancement of agricultural safety personnel through continuing education and professional networking. We believe safety is not proprietary and work alongside industry leaders and regulators to better understand how to keep our employees out of harm's way.

As a founding member of the Ag Coop Safety Directors of Iowa (ACSDIA), Mark Hambleton was dedicated to the future of Agricultural safety and those working in and around the Ag industry. Mark served as an officer in the ACSDIA for many years and as the Safety Director of Pro Cooperative he was one of the first in the nation to arrange for his cooperative to donate grain bin cofferdams to local fire departments for grain bin rescues. In honor of his dedication to the future of Ag Safety and assisted by a generous donation from Compass Compliance, the ACSDIA is proud to present these scholarships in memory of Mark Hambleton.

The Ag Coop Safety Directors of Iowa Scholarship is open to high school Seniors looking to go on to a career in an Agriculture or Safety related field and must be planning to attend college, university, or trade school during the upcoming school year.
